5 Star Training & Consulting agrees to provide access to available enrolment positions for all persons who have the relevant skills, experience, and ability to satisfactorily meet enrolment requirements for behaviour, safety, course/qualification pre-requisites, payment of fees, and the observance of 5 Star Training & Consulting policy.

5 Star Training & Consulting is committed to providing a supportive training environment conducive of learning and expects participants to respect this principle by refraining from disrupting training and assessment sessions in anyway.

It is expected that participants attend all training sessions punctually.

Participants shall not take part in any activity, illegal or otherwise, that brings the organisation into disrepute whilst on 5 Star Training & Consulting premises or designated training and assessment areas.

5 Star Training & Consulting expects participants to behave in a professional and respectful manner at all times. This includes respecting the learning styles and varying abilities of other participants.

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

5 Star Training & Consulting has the authority to suspend or exclude students from class in the event of misconduct. Misconduct encompasses both academic and behavioural misconduct which includes but is not limited to:

- Cheating
- Plagiarism
- Collusion
- Falsifying information
- Breaches of commonwealth or state law
- Behaviour that impairs the reasonable freedom of others to pursue their studies
- Acts that endangers the health and safety of others
- Acting in a way that causes damage to 5 Star Training & Consulting's property

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

5 Star Training & Consulting has process in place for participants enrolled in a course seeking to appeal against an academic decision or another grievance regarding procedural matters in relation to all aspects of operations of 5 Star Training & Consulting.

A complaint can be made using three avenues:

- Informal complaint
- Formal complaint
- External complaint

With the exception of serious matters, many complaints can be handled through the informal process. This process should be used in the first instance.

Note that external bodies such as the NSW Ombudsman may require the complainant to lodge an internal complaint first before they will become involved. The complainant should contact the external body directly for advice on when they will take up a matter.

All issues, complaints and grievances are taken seriously by the staff and management of our business and will be investigated and acted upon as quickly as possible.

Complainants will be informed in writing about actions taken on their behalf and confidentiality will be maintained to ensure the rights of the complainant are upheld.

An appeal may only be lodged on the grounds of lack of procedural fairness in the investigating process.

Appeals are to be in writing to the Chief Executive Officer within 15 working days of the date of notification of outcome and must state the grounds for appeal.

INDUCTION/ORIENTATION

All students will undergo an induction/orientation prior to course commencement. This process will include details on course delivery, how you will be assessed, policies, procedures, appeals, access and equity, RPL, WHS, etc.

ASSESSMENT

All assessments conducted by 5 Star Training & Consulting are designed to be consistent the principles of assessment being valid, fair, reliable and flexible.

5 Star Training & Consulting shall ensure:

- the goals and criteria of assessment are clear
- the assessment methods to be used will be communicated to participants prior to commencement of training
- a variety of assessment measures and techniques are used
- participant self-assessment is encouraged in order to allow participants to take responsibility for their own learning
- assessment is inclusive of all learners and free from bias
- participants are informed of the Complaints and Appeals policy should they wish to appeal an assessment decision
- assessment results are recorded accurately and confidentially

Students will be given two (2) opportunities to be assessed for competency in a given course or program. Subsequent reassessments may incur an additional fee.

A flexible assessment process will be undertaken to consider the needs of people with special needs or situations including:

- Cultural background
- Disability
- LL&N difficulties
- Other reasons

The results and details of all assessments will be recorded and kept on file for the purpose of auditing. Transcripts and course results will be issued on course completion. Progress reports will be issued each semester. If students need to access their results at any other time written request is required.

ASSESSMENT APPEAL

If a student does not agree with an assessment outcome they should first discuss the matter with the trainer/assessor concerned and if the complaint cannot be resolved at this point then the student can lodge an written appeal

The appeal will follow the same process as a complaint and will be investigated by the CEO. Where the CEO is the trainer/assessor the appeal will be investigated by the Director.

Grounds for Appeal

An application for appeal will be considered where:

- A student claims a disadvantage because the trainer did not provide a subject outline
- A student claims disadvantage because the trainer varied without consultation or in an unreasonable way the assessment requirements as specified in the subject outline
- A student claims disadvantage because assessment requirements specified by the trainer were unreasonably or prejudicially applied to him or her
- A student is of the view that a clerical error has occurred in the documenting of the assessment outcome
- A student claims that there is a discrepancy between the practical observation and the formal assessment.

If the appeal for re-assessment is proven, 5 Star Training will appoint an alternative assessor who will make all necessary arrangements to conduct the re-assessment of the student at a time that is mutually convenient for all parties concerned.

How to make a complaint or appeal

- Initial complaint or appeal should be discussed informally with the applicable staff involved.
- If the complaint or appeal is not resolved informally, the student may choose to lodge a formal complaint or appeal.
- The complaint or appeal is recorded and the CEO will make contact within 10 working days to arrange a meeting
- A meeting will take place to negotiate between all parties in an attempt to find a resolution agreeable to all parties. All appealed assessments will be re assessed by an alternative trainer/assessor.
- Written documentation on the outcome and resolution is provided to all parties and actions are immediately implemented.
- If a student is not satisfied with the outcome they will be referred to an external body where the matter can be dealt with independently

FEE STRUCTURE

All fees are due and payable at the time of enrolment.

In programs funded by Government Authorities, client charges will be determined by the terms of the Government Contract.

The cost of a course is dependent upon delivery and assessment methods. Fee structures are outlined in the specific course information leaflet.

REFUND POLICY

A full refund of enrolment fees will be made if a course is cancelled by 5 Star Training & Consulting for any reason.

An application for refund of course fees under any other circumstance must be made in writing to 5 Star Training & Consulting at least seven (7) days of the course start date. In this case a 20% processing fee will charged.

Where cancellation is made less than seven (7) days prior to the commencement of a course, no refund will be issued.

Refunds will be considered on a pro-rata basis for participants who fall ill or are injured to the extent they can no longer undertake the course, providing a supporting Medical Certificate is supplied to 5 Star Training & Consulting.

All requests for refunds will be acted upon within thirty (30) days.

In all cases, approvals for refund and credit requests are at the discretion of 5 Star Training & Consulting and shall be negotiated and assessed on a case by case basis. Refunds for extenuating or exceptional circumstances may be granted on consideration by 5 Star Training & Consulting
